

Summit on the Future of Vermont

The Vermont Council on Rural Development (VCRD) hosts the Summit on the Future of Vermont to share the findings from its 18 month project that asked Vermonters to express their values, goals, and priorities as they look to address the challenges and opportunities ahead. Join key leaders in looking across party lines, past regional differences, and to our common purpose in advancing our best interests today and for the next generation of Vermonters. $40. Register in advance, www.futureofvermont.org.
